The help improve her fingering and speed junior Michelle Maroon diagnoses her mistakes during typing class.

Sneak Previews

Junior Nicole Parker takes her life in her own hands as she allows senior Craig Slaughter to carefully pin on her corsage at the Homecoming Dance.

At the school carnival, fun was had by everyone — especially those who were lucky enough to sink someone in the dunk tank. Brrrrrr!!!

Prime

Student Life is having a good time going to dances, throwing balls at a dunk tank, hissing at the villain in the school play, reflecting over his life — past, present, and future — at the annual retreat, singing along at the musical, and receiving that piece of paper which says he's made it through four years of having fun in the Prime Time.

The beach bums came out at the Back-to-School Dance in the student center. Showing everyone how it's done are Douglas Cady, Christopher Cutter, Moira Slevin, Robert Kocher, and Meathan Slevin.

Summer Swing

Irish students were seen in fashion throughout the summer. Sunglasses with cords; buzzes, flat tops, crew cuts; Hawaiian prints and pastel plaids; Jams and surfers of all lengths; and Reebok shoes were fashion trends for the summer of '86.

Rich Weitzel sports a pair of shades, a popular fashion statement for 1986.

Summer fashion flair hits Spalding.

In The Beginning

For most students, orientation meant one thing: the last few days of summer were fading away and, alas, a new school year was just around the corner.

As the hustle, bustle, and clamor of the students filled the auditorium, the past summer and future high school expectations were the basic topics of conversation. The clatter of the group turned to whispers and attention was centered upon a member of the Spalding faculty. The greeting was a quick "hello" and "welcome back," followed by an unending list of absurd rules. Another Spalding official continued with a speech, listing the goals and priorities that the students should work towards at AOL/SI. Then I.D. cards, locker assignments, and handbooks were distributed.

During freshman orientation, the students ran around with their Big Brothers and Big Sisters frantically looking for their classrooms yet trying to make it to the "pit" for mass. The freshmen realized this state of confusion would remain with them during the first few days of school.

By the conclusion of orientation week, most students were ready to accept the challenge of the new school year and say goodbye to summer freedom.

Students listen intently (?) as faculty welcome them to AOL/SI.

Teachers are commissioned at the Back To School Mass.

Andy Welsh, Chris Collins, Joe Hartwig, and Julie Kiefer enjoyed the celebration by singing and dancing.

Four juniors concentrate on video games, another activity on Ring Day.

"Rack 'em up," says Craig Link to Mike Carlsten. There were many activities at the party at Stage 2.

A Day of Tradition and Excitement

The junior class will remember September 10 as a day of excitement — a day they had been anticipating for some time. It was their Ring Day — the traditional event that marks juniors as “upperclassmen.”

The day began with mass, celebrated by Father Beebe, at Sacred Heart. The theme of the mass was “We are one in Christ” and in his homily, Father Beebe explained that the class ring is a symbol of class unity and memories of high school. After the blessing of the rings, Sister Marcia presented them to the students.

Following the special liturgy, the junior class went to “Stage 2”. Lunch, music, and dancing were enjoyed by all juniors. According to the junior class moderator, Mrs. Maurice, “the day was of great significance and turned out to be a success due to the hard work of the Student Senate.”

A proud moment for Janet McGrew as she receives her class ring from Sister Marcia.

Seniors, Bob Carroll, Dave Herrera, and Meg Ritchel work diligently as they decorate their hall.

Off Broadway

Grease, the seniors' theme, is expressed dramatically.

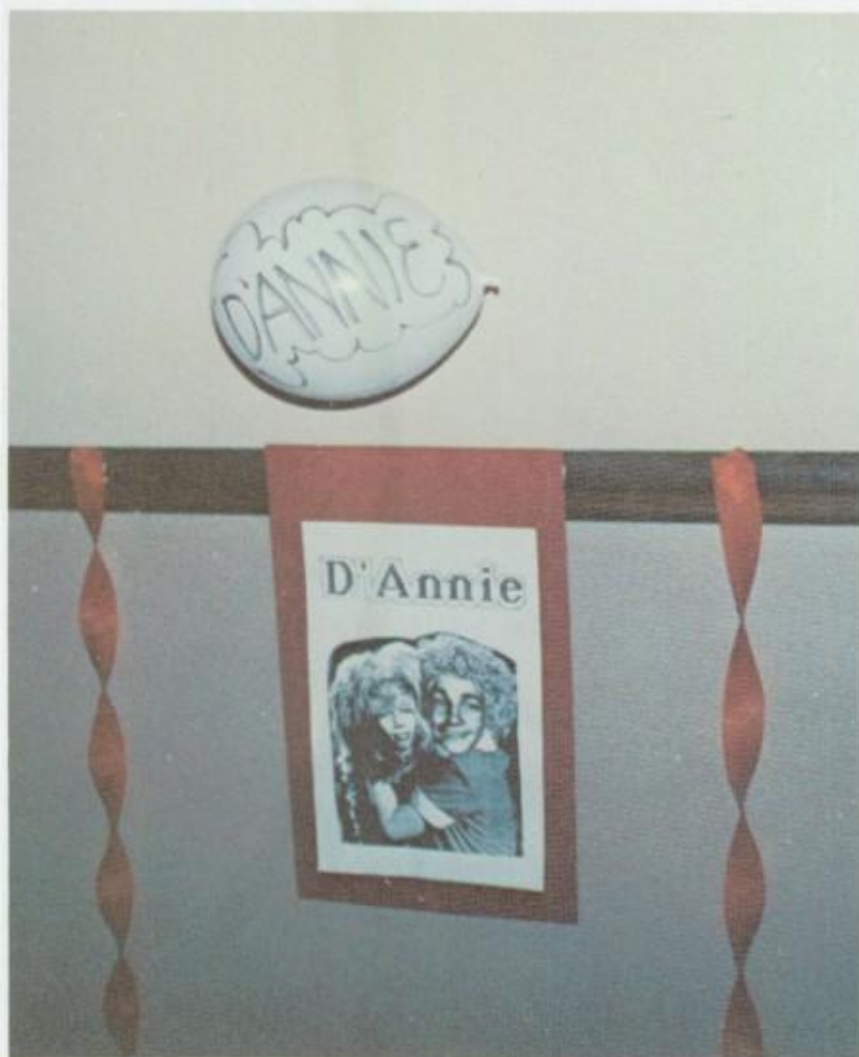

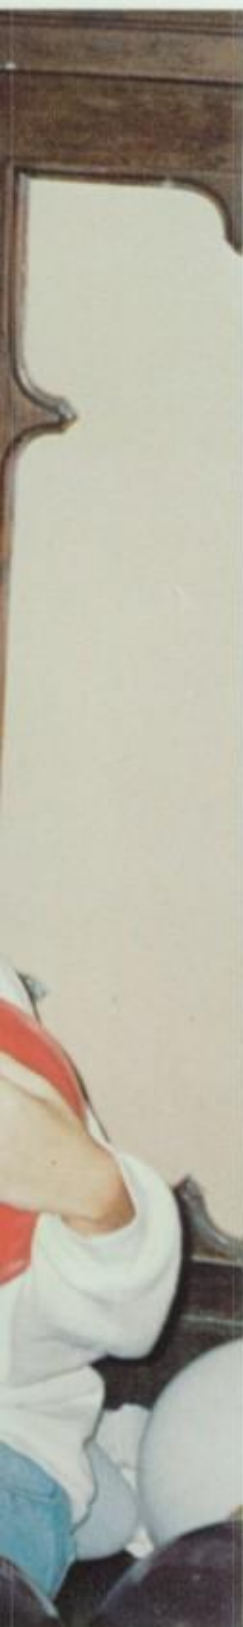

Homecoming '86 was held September 14-20. The general theme, "Off Broadway" prevailed throughout the week. It would become an event that many would treasure as a high school memory.

One aspect of Homecoming was the "hall decs." On Sunday, members of each class decorated their respective hall according to the theme of their skit. The judging results were: 1st — Seniors, 2nd — Juniors, 3rd — Sophomores, 4th — Freshmen.

During Homecoming week, fashions at AOL/SI changed drastically. Each day a different style was established and students gladly dressed accordingly to escape the dreaded uniform. On Monday, 50's day, poodle skirts, leather jackets, and t-shirts were popular. On Tuesday, Oklahoma day, flannel shirts, jeans, cowboy boots and hats were worn by many. On Wednesday, Inside-out day, nearly everyone participated by wearing 'whatever' on the wrong side. On Thursday, Occupation day, doctors, housewives, and businessmen were visible in the school halls. Finally, on Friday, Purple, Gold, & White day, the students showed their Irish spirit by wearing the school colors.

Kris Penn adds a finishing touch to the junior hall on Sunday.

West Side Story dominates the Sophomore hall.

Spirit Galore

Skits were an enjoyable part of Homecoming, whether you were a spectator or a participant.

On Tuesday, families and friends were invited and on Wednesday the students attended. Loyalty, sportsmanship, and great spirit were shown in the three skits. The sophomore skit was based on West Side Story. The juniors performed a version of Annie. Finally, the seniors' was a take-off of Grease. The judging results were as follows: 1st — Seniors, 2nd — Juniors, 3rd — Sophomores.

Following skits on Wednesday, students went outside to the bonfire. Although the rain-soaked wood took awhile to start, the fire was soon ablaze. The queen and her court were announced.

On Friday afternoon, a pep rally was held for the whole school. It was a time for everyone to express their school spirit through cheers. Coach McMahon encouraged the students to support the team at the game.

game many students, mostly in trucks, met in the school parking lot to decorate their vehicles. Then the caravan paraded to Richwoods' stadium to see the long awaited Homecoming game against Woodruff.

Friday evening, the Irish met the Warriors. Pouring rain caused many delays. Eventually, at half-time, it was decided that the remaining half would be played Saturday afternoon. The Irish lost 32-20.

The bonfire burns brightly in the lot behind Spalding at a pep rally following skits Wednesday night.

The Grand Finale

The evening of Saturday, September 20, at 9pm, the Ramada Inn became the site of the Homecoming dance. Couples arrived after dining at restaurants such as Jumer's, Vonachen's, Old Place, and the River Station. They danced to the music of Booe and the Scanners. Mau-reen Koch reigned as queen over the dance. The evening was a perfect conclusion to a very memorable Homecoming week.

"Gondolas for sale!" shouts Joe Hartwig. The gondola booth was sponsored by the Student Senate.

A Fun Time For All

On October 17, students, faculty, and eighth graders from several grade schools attended the annual "Carnival On The Mall." The varied selection of delicious food included gondolas, pork chops, bratwursts, cotton candy, taffy apples, baked goods, popcorn, and soda. Game booths consisted of many from past years plus some new ones. The dunk tank, manned by the E.T.C., seemed to be the most popular. Music continuously played throughout the carnival; students acted as D.J. Once again many homerooms took part in the tug-of-war, with senior homeroom #18 being the winner. The day concluded with an Irish spirit-filled pep rally. The varsity football co-captains stated that, "we're gonna break Richwoods winning streak of thirty games." That evening the Irish won, breaking the Knights' winning streak.

Karry Sue Meizelis pleads to be released from jail.

Tom Gilfillan, Randy Gordon, and Peter Jennetten, students from senior home-room #306, contribute their muscle in the tug-of-war.

Nachos are a "hot" item at the carnival.

After buying food from the various food booths, students met and ate in the pit.

Nella Hargrave (Carrie Heinzen) pouts when Malvern falls for Felicity.

Hypochondriacs Brockton (Lewis Brown) and Geraldine Hargrave (Kristin Glore), compete to be the sickest.

Dr. Hugo Belch (Michael Donovan) advises Regina that her plan to have Malvern marry Nella will not succeed.

Cyril Bothingwell	Mike Nee
Denise	Cyndi Leman
Geraldine Hargrave	Kristin Glore

“Foiled Again!”

The Educational Theatre Company chose Caught In The Villain's Web as this year's fall production.

It was a play characterized by heavy use of suspense, sensational episodes, romantic sentiment, and a conventional happy ending. In this melodrama by Herbert E.

Swayne, Felicity, the persecuted heroine, was constantly escaping the evils of the ruthless villain, Cyril Bothingwell. Due to the hard work of the cast, producer/director Kathy Svoboda, and the stage crew, the play was a huge success. It, like so many of the past plays at AOL/SI, proved to be a smash hit.

Cyril Bothingwell (Mike Nee), the sinister villain, is constantly up to no good.

Regina Larkfield (Laurel Berge) opposes Malvern's (Dean Poignant) thoughts of marrying Felicity.

Felicity (Marci McCulla) is welcomed by Lona (Katina Schaidle) and Regina (Laurel Berge) as she arrives to take on her duties as Regina's nurse.

Santa Claus dances with a student at Hog Fest '86. The dance raised money to buy hams for the basket drive.

Mayor Jim Maloof and Bradley basketball player, Donald Powell encourage students to join the Peoria Food Share Can-a-thon.

Julie Cramer, a freshman dressed as Piglet, rides on the Spalding float during the Santa Claus Parade.

Children trick-or-treat in the Academy Building in October. Sociology students brought the children from the Salvation Army Day Care.

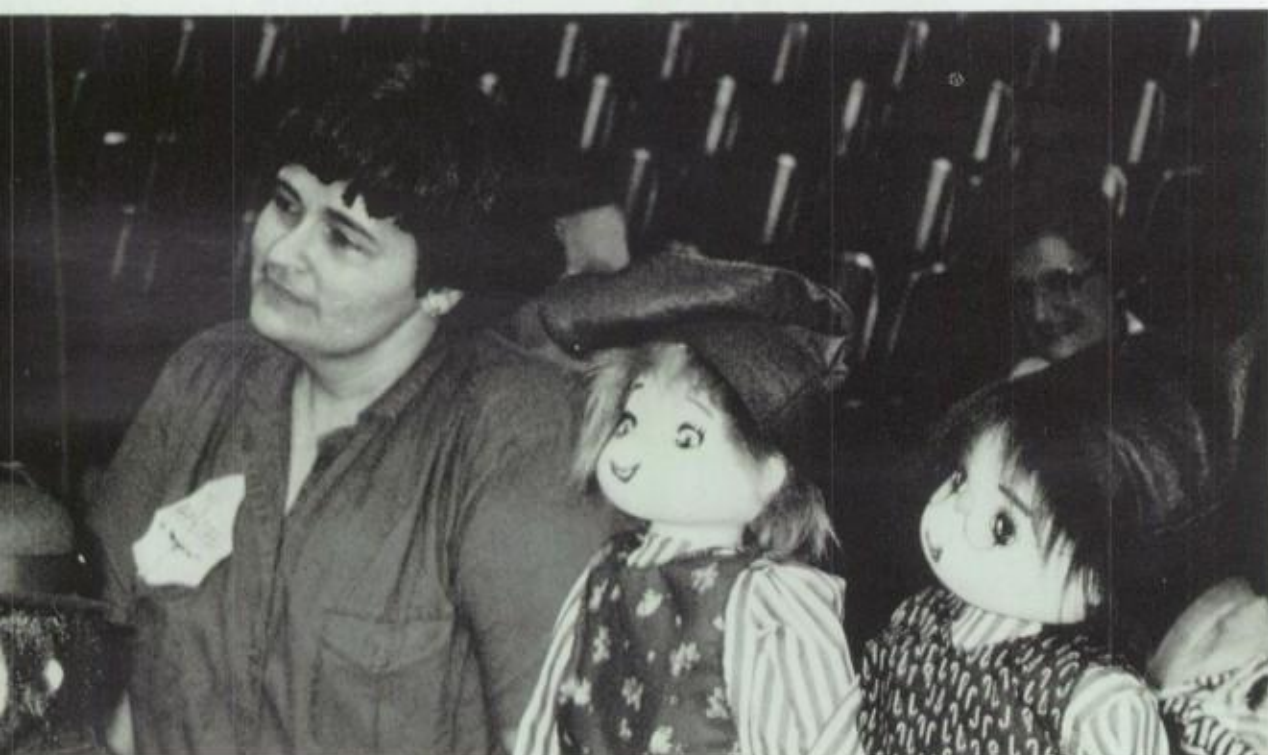

Fall & Winter Fun

Student Senate members, Julie Morris, Brian Couri, Lee Ann Meizelis, and Matt Paluska work on dividing foods for the annual basket drive. The Student Senate had its most successful year filling 341 baskets.

Sr. Margaret Schulz helps out in a booth selling elves at the Craft and Antique Faire. The elves were made by Sister Rita Dooley.

Travels in Russia

From July 18 to August 9, 1986, Erik Heinzen, Cyndi Leman, and Sr. Barbara joined 22 other students and two teachers from Illinois in learning first hand about the USSR.

They traveled over 8,000 miles within six of the 15 Soviet Republics: Moscow, Leningrad, Suzdal, Rostov-on-Don in Russia; Kharkov in the Ukraine; Baku in Azerbaijan; Dushanbe in Tajikistan; Alma Ata in Kazakhstan; and Tashkent in Uzbekistan. The trip was a program called "Initiative for Understanding: American-Soviet Youth Exchange." The group experienced the culture and peoples of the USSR.

Students visit St. Basil's Cathedral, Red Square and the park next to Gorky Theater.

Reflection, Meditation, Prayer

Solitude, reflection, meditation, and prayer united students closer to their friends, faith, and God. Short lectures, films, skits, discussions, and mass filled the day and made it enjoyable for all participants. Father Terry Diefenbach, retreat master, wanted students to "stop and think, feel, laugh, and cry." He made the retreat day special and unique for each class. Retreats were held on January 21 (freshmen), January 22 (sophomores), February 4 (juniors), and February 5 (seniors). Many students remarked that the hugging was the best part of the retreat.

Emotions run high as Cindy Schmitt and Fr. Terry share a hug during the junior retreat. One of the major parts of the retreat was a "hug-in" where students hugged members from their class.

Fr. Terry Diefenbach celebrates mass at the senior retreat. A mass served as the closing event of each retreat.

Students at the senior retreat gathered into groups of six or seven to discuss a moral decision to a situation described by Fr. Terry.

Father Terry asked the freshman to answer questions dealing with self-admiration and self-worth at their retreat.

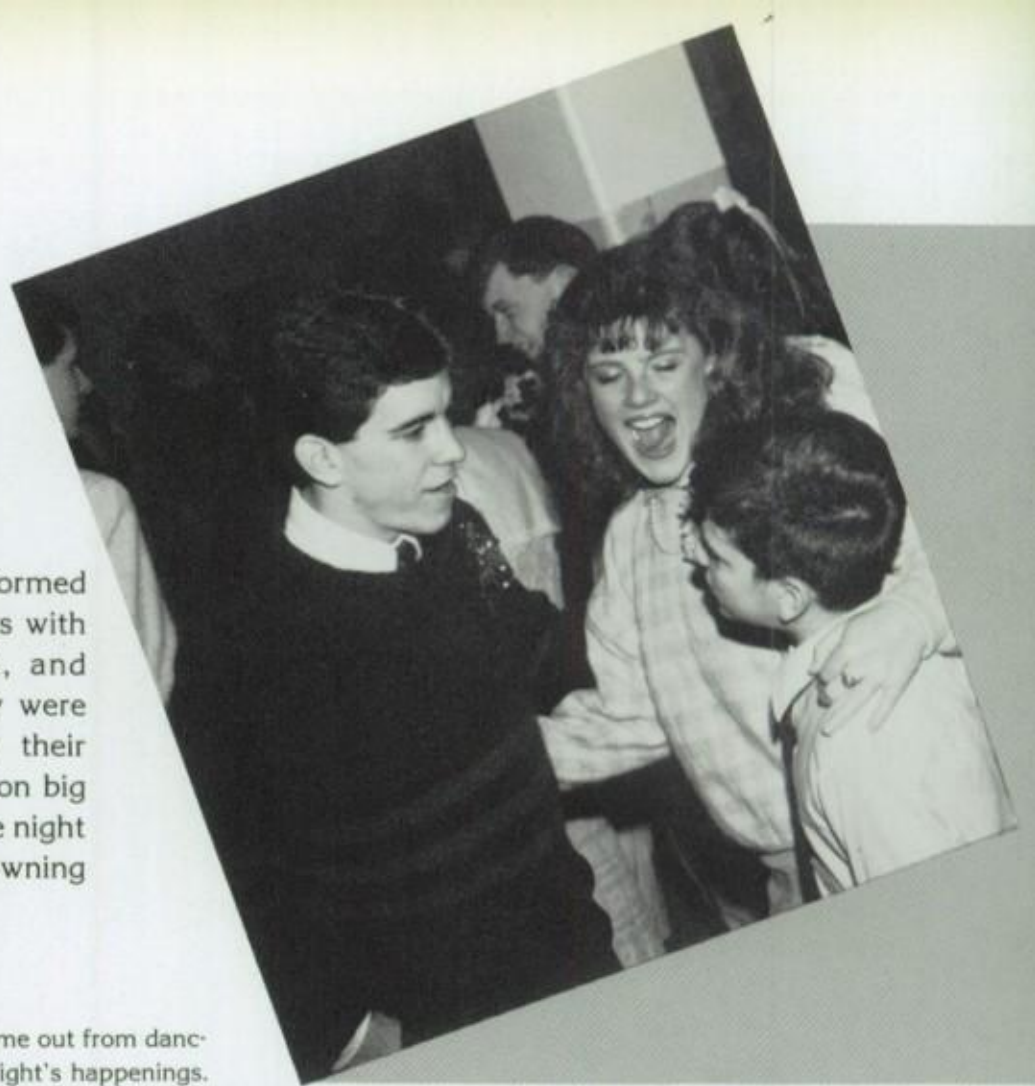

A Big Night For The Guys

February 28, 1987 was a big night for the guys. Instead of them treating the girls like queens, the girls treated the guys like kings. The girls paid for everything. They bought the guys a fancy dinner and swept them off to the dance floor. The couples danced to the beat of "The Heat" in the "lower ballroom" of AOL/SI, also known as the school cafeteria.

The cafeteria was transformed into a night stop for couples with decorations of pink, red, and white. The guys knew they were important when they saw their names and escorts' names on big pink hearts on the walls. The night was topped off with the crowning of Dan Schaub as king.

Seniors, Bryan Tilly and Monica Mattingly, and freshman, Mark Maroon take time out from dancing to talk about the night's happenings.

1987 VICE VERSA COURT: Junior attendant Harold Dawson and his escort; Kasey Perkhiser, freshman attendant Jason Heer, and Karry Sue Meizelis; Sandra Swanson and Vice Versa King Dan Schaub; senior attendant Scott Schaumburg and Christie Higgins; and sophomore attendant Edward Papis and Jennifer Kelly.

Dancing the night away are Senior Mark Mattson and Kim Marthaler.

Senior Dan Schaub is crowned the 1987 Vice Versa King by Fr. Beebe at the dance.

Lewis Brown steals a kiss from Shelley Follis, his date who treated him to a night to remember.

"Clowning Around," senior Carol Boyer and juniors Gina Paluska and Michele Maroon enjoy a wonderful night.

'I'd Sell My Soul ...'

The spring musical, Damn Yankees, was performed on March 27, 28, and 29 under the leadership of Mrs. Kathy Voboda, staging director, and Mrs. Wendy Strauss, music director. Damn Yankees deals with Joe Applegate's plan. come a superstar for the Washington Senators. Later, Joe tries to get out of the deal. At the championship game between the Senators and the New York Yankees he makes the winning catch. He then returns to his loving wife, ruining Applegate's plan.

Carol Ann Boyer, a senior, and Katina Schaidle, a freshman, put some finishing touches on their make-up opening night.

Meg Boyd Kathy Bouchard contemplates losing her husband who "disappeared" mysteriously.

Robin "Lola" Gathers signs her name on the backstage wall. After every show put on by AOL/SI the cast signs the wall.

Junior Craig Link, one of the talented technical assistants, works on Meg's porch to get it ready for the big weekend.

ish Greet Ivorians

When the Ivorians first arrived on Wednesday morning we were all introduced. It was a slow start, because we weren't sure how much English they knew and they weren't sure how much French we knew, but it soon disappeared.

Marie-Victoire Ouffoue was the student that stayed with me and my family and she and I shared my room. Our two most common phrases were "Qu'est-ce qu'on dit ..." and "Est-ce que tu ..." which translate to "How do you say ..." and "Do you ..." We talked about her friends at home and the ones she had made in the United States. We looked at the pictures of some of my friends and she quizzed me with some French flash cards I had.

With my parents, we talked about the climate differences. In Côte d'Ivoire the temperature is never above 30.5°C (87°F) or below 23.9°C (77°F) so they were all a bit cold here. We also discussed their education system. When Sister Barbara asked Vicki how much the tuition was she couldn't understand "tuition" because schools in Ivory Coast are free. Everyone does well because if they don't, there is someone waiting to take their place. The school days there are from 7 am to 12 noon and then 3 pm to 6 pm. On Thursday and Saturday they only go 'til noon.

She and I also discussed the price of various things. In Ivory Coast a pair of Levi's cost $80 but cassette tapes only cost $3. Most teens in Ivory Coast love American music. The more common favorites are Phil Collins, Prince, Lionel Richie, Paul Simon (especially since the release of his album Graceland), Madonna and Cyndi Lauper.

The main issue that discouraged and disappointed them was the lack of knowledge American students had about other countries. They told us some students were surprised that Ivorians lived in houses, wore more than a loin cloth, had cars and television sets, or had skyscrapers in Abidjon — the capitol of Ivory Coast.

Vicki helped me get ready for the Prom, too. And by Sunday, I was very sorry to see them leave. This had been much more than a learning experience — it had become a bond of friendship. Now I have a new sister and five other dear friends. Hopefully in the near future I'll get to see them again. Until then, we'll keep writing and learning more about each other and our countries and whenever I heard "You Can Call Me Al" on the radio I'll think of the Ivory Coast students who spent five days in Peoria during the spring of my junior year.

“Stand By Me”

Prom 1987 was held at the Twin Towers Mall on April 25 at 9 pm with the theme being “Stand By Me.” The mall was transformed into a beautiful ballroom with gold and white balloons and bows. The keychain tickets, souvenir glasses, and pictures by Rembrandt’s will be lasting reminders of the elegant evening. Couples danced to the music of Ready-Steady-Go. At 10 pm the court was announced and Julie Powers was crowned queen of the dance.

Senior Zenaida Falcon and her date take a romantic ride on Horsedrawn carriage after leaving the prom.

Taking time out for some mischief, juniors Amy LaHood and Alia Zarley play with some of the balloons.

After a tiring dance, senior Karen Millar fixes Brian Flaherty's boutonniere so he will look "picture-perfect."

Seniors, Joe George and Queen Julie Powers, demonstrate the latest dance steps.

Seniors Michele Staats, Mike McNutt, Brad Pascual, and Patti Nauman board a charter bus after the prom. A group of seniors chartered the bus and went to Chicago to go to mass at the cathedral, eat breakfast at the Ritz, and walk along the beach. They arrived back in Peoria at about 6 pm on Sunday. A special guest on the trip was "Bishop Spalding."

Honoring Our Founders

Peoria celebrity and Spalding alumnus Pete Vonachen talks to the students on Founders' Day. He told students to take pride in their school and its past.

Father John Meyers, the Vicar General of the Peoria Diocese, gives the homily on May 8, Founders' Day.

Junior Ann Ihnken and sophomore Richard Ihnken, her brother, bring up the gifts during the offertory. The Founders' Day Mass involved many people associated with Academy/Spalding in many ways.

On May 23 and May 24, about fifty juniors rented a charter bus and went to Great America. They stayed at the Holiday Inn in Gurnee. The trip cost each student $50 plus meals and souvenirs. The trip was organized by Maria Aranas and it was a great success.

Travels In Italy

Over Easter break, 16 people traveled to Italy for a one week vacation. The group rode gondolas in Venice, climbed the Leaning Tower of Pisa, admired the art of daVinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael in Florence, awed by the wonders of St. Peter's and the Sistine Chapel in Rome, and shopped and ate pasta everywhere. The cost was approximately $1,200.

The Leaning Tower of Pisa astounds many travelers in Italy. The tour group visited the Vatican in Rome. Marsha Aranas, a senior, stands in San Marco Square in the heart of Venice. Upon arrival at the Milan airport, some of the Spalding group review the day's schedule; they are Mrs. Kent, Margaret Griffin, Stacy Calvert, Jill Draggist, Michelle Pestl, and Mrs. Krause.

A "Close Up" Look At Washington, D.C.

Seven juniors and two seniors visited Washington, D.C. from April 26 to May 2 with a program called Close Up. The trip was a unique fun-filled, learning experience that introduced students to senators, representatives, journalists, and lobbyists in an attempt to familiarize high schoolers with their national government.

Valedictorian Lien Luong received a standing ovation after her speech at the brunch. She spoke about the opportunities awaiting the graduates in the future.

Salutatorian Kevin Eisfelder prepares the microphone before his speech at brunch. His speech was a reminiscence of the seniors last four years at Spalding.

At the Baccalaureate Brunch in the Continental Regency, senior SUMMA members Troy Hattermann, Peter Jennetten, and Robert Estoye each pose for a picture with their families.

At the Baccalaureate Brunch, Sister Grace was presented a plaque because of her hard work and dedication at Academy-Spalding. Sister was reassigned and will be leaving AOL/SI.

After the awards ceremony, seniors shared small talk before they had to return to gym to begin one of three graduation practices before the actual commencement on Friday evening.

Fourth and Four

Although the 1986 football record was not as successful as previous seasons, there were some very positive aspects. Most of the players agreed that they grew as a team throughout the season. With only four returning starters from last year, Coach McMahon said it was lack of experience that made a big difference, but he also expressed that the team "played as hard as it could and never gave up." The team's attitude was exemplified in breaking the Richwood' 30 game winning streak, beating them in a thrilling seven to two victory. "It was great because we hadn't beaten Richwoods since freshman year," said one senior player about the game. Spalding's overall record was three and six and the conference record was three and four. Senior Tim Eason thought "we could do better than we did, but our team had tons of unity and teamwork."

The 1986 football awards were voted on by the team. The captains for this season were seniors Bryan Tilly and George Driggs. Center, Bryan Tilly, was also voted Best Offensive Receiver, and senior Troy Cambell was named Best Defensive Lineman. Voted Best Defensive Secondary Player was senior, John Kendall, and Best Kicker was senior Charlie Gavin.

In the Mid-State Ten, All Conference Section, Spalding had several players named. First team selections were seniors Troy Campbell and Bryan Tilly. Second team picks were seniors Chris Green and George Driggs. Special Mentions went to seniors John Kendall and Charlie Gavin, and junior Jay Varda.

A special award was given this year, the Mervyn B. Haycock Memorial Award. Recipients were Jim Jorgenson and Bryan Tilly.

Pain Pays

Led by Coach Hitzeroth and Coach Burk, the freshman football team ended its season with a 9-1 record. The only game lost was to the Central Lions by the narrow margin of 4 points. They "played well as a team," knowing that a good team does not exist of a few outstanding players, but through the cooperation of everyone.

Playing competitively, the sophomore team achieved a 4-4 record. Coach Kelly commented that the sophomores were "little in size, but big in heart." The team's enthusiasm made up for their lack in size. Coaches Kelly and Doyle were pleased with their players' efforts.

Corner Shot

The Irish Soccer team had an 11-7 season and many high and low points. One of the high points was the Moline game when the Irish defeated them 4-3. A lot of the bad points in the season were caused from injuries. The Irish also had a new coach this year, Steve De-Cremer. Although it was his first year, he was very sound on discipline and team unity. Many of the team players say he worked very well with what he had.

Seniors Dave Herrera, Harold Snider and junior Tim Willi, Chris Cutter and Sean O'Hanlon overload the offensive side of the field.

Senior goalie Dan Schaub kicks the ball down field away from the Spalding net.

Running Towards Success

This year marked the first full season with a girls' cross-country team (requiring five runners) and the first girls' dual meet victory in the school's history. This came against Manual. With only three experienced runners, the team did well. It finished fifth in a strong girls' conference and twelfth at the much acclaimed Spalding Invitational, one of the largest high school cross-country races in the country.

A dual meet win over Woodruff was a high point in the boys' season. With the set up of one top runner and middle runners farther back, the team placed eighth in conference but did send senior Andy Noreuil onto sectionals.

First year coach Scott Schifeling summed it up by saying, the two teams "should have a good nucleus back for next season as we only had two seniors, and four freshmen made big contributions this year." Most valuable runners were Andy Noreuil and Karen Millar. Tim Waters and Erin Smith received most improved runner awards. Tom Thomas and Ingrid Dowell were most dedicated.

Reflecting on his race, Tom Thomas plans his next move. Tom received the most dedicated boys runner award.

The varsity cheerleading squad practice their mounts.

Gym Time

It's after school. Your ride is coming at 2:45 or you have practice at 3:00. What do you do to waste time? Many people in this situation go to the gym. The cheerleaders are stretching before they practice. Pom-pon girls use precious time on the gym floor before volleyball or basketball players take over. The weight room is busy and there are even a few people trying to get some homework done. In addition to the athletes, there are always people just standing around. Some are just passing through. Others, just talk to friends until coaches come and kick them out. So you have some time to waste? Why not go to the gym.

Drive, Chip, Putt

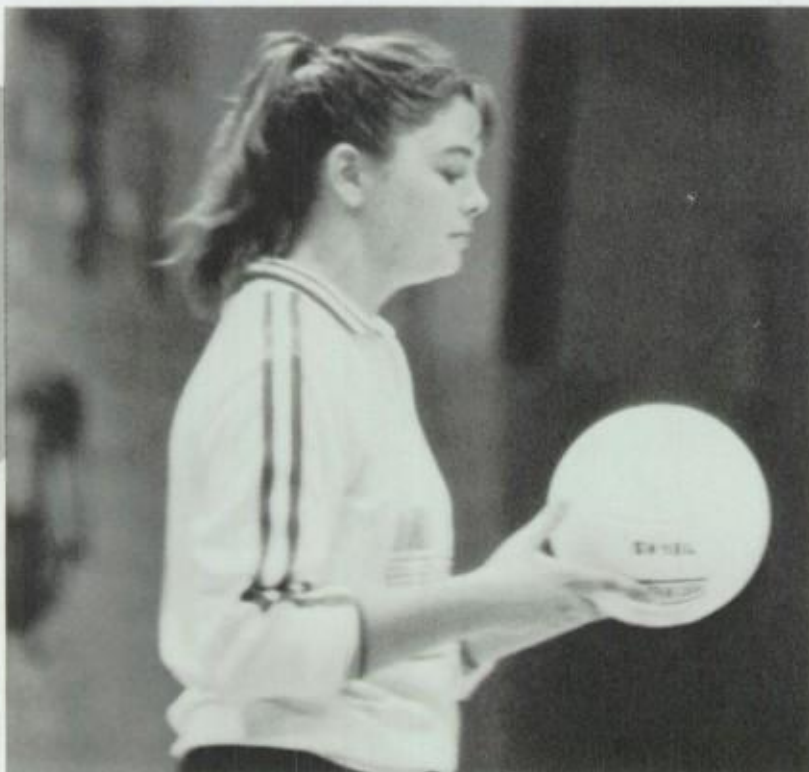

This year's golf team finished with a 4-7 dual match record, and placed 6th at the Mid-State 10 conference tournament, which was held at Northmoor Golf course. The team was led by junior Chuck Smith who had a 9 hole average of 41, and junior Brad Fulton, who had an average of 44. Todd Callan and Matt Sandvos were the only seniors that played varsity this year, so next year the team should do better with more experienced players.

The best tournament finish for the team was at the Sterling Invitational, where the Irish finished 8th, with Brad Fulton qualifying for the sectionals by shooting an 83. Fulton, however, did not make it to state.

At the end of the year, awards for lowest average and most birdies went to Chuck Smith, while Brad Fulton and sophomore Troy Foster tied for most improved.

Senior Tami Moore practices her serve before the game begins.

Freshman Stephanie Vignali tips the ball back into play for the Irish.

Freshman Jenny Ward makes a good defensive move by setting the ball for another teammate.

Fourteen Serving Two

"The win-loss record did not illustrate the talent this team possessed," according to coach Cindy Clark. With the loss of five seniors, a less successful season can be expected, but no one can predict injuries. Ellen Eason, Michele Maroon, and Sandy Swanson all suffered from injuries this year. Do not draw the conclusion that the season was a total loss. As senior Tami Moore said, "When we began to play like a team, we began to win."

The team was led by senior Sandy Swanson and junior Monica Cundiff who were selected as first and second place conference, respectively. Junior Amy Snider received the award for Most Improved Player. Monica Cundiff was Best Offensive Player while Sandy Swanson was chosen both Best Defensive and Most Valuable Player.

Starters: On Your Marks

This year's twenty-three member team broke even, posting a 6-6 record (2-5 in the conference). This record might cover up some of the season's success. Pattie Nauman, a senior, was Most Valuable Swimmer, setting the school records in the backstroke and individual medley. Kris Penn, a junior, was conference champion in diving and qualified for state. Coach Tom Pilat mentioned these individual successes and the team's size as highpoints. Captained by seniors Pattie Nauman, Julie Newby, and Julie Morris, both the varsity and fresh-soph teams placed fifth in conference. Sophomore Jenny Kelly was Most Improved Swimmer.

Continuity Offense

The 1986-87 fighting Irish Basketball team compiled an overall record of 4-20.

Despite its' losing record, this year's team had a good attitude and never gave up. Coach Kelly felt the players worked very hard all year.

Senior Charlie Gavin thought the team played well despite some difficulties, "The team had many injuries and sickness so it was hard to concentrate just five or six people playing together."

The season was highlighted by beating arch-rival, Bergan, twice. The Irish also pulled off a hard fought victory over sectional qualifier Metamora. Scott Schaumburg was the leading scorer and also the leading rebounder.

Scott received special mention in all-conference, while Chris Green received Honorable-mention in all-conference.

Team scoring leader, Scott Schaumburg, puts in two, to add to his 12 points a game scoring average.

Out: Purple Ball

The 1986-87 sophomore boys basketball team saw an overall record of 3-17 and a conference record of 2-12. They achieved their high point of the season when they beat Bergan. Their low point of the season was when they lost 6 games by 10 points or less. Leading scorers for the Irish were Greg Heller and Chris Williams. Coach Schifeling said, "it was a frustrating season from the win-loss stand point, but the effort of the players was outstanding and each showed some improvement as the season went on."

The 1986-87 freshmen boys basketball team had an overall record of (A) 9-6, (B) 9-6 and a conference record of (A) 7-5, (B) 6-6. One high point of the season was winning against Manual at Manual. The low point of the season came when they lost 3 games in a row. Coach Doyle stated, "the players always hustled and worked very hard together."

Steal and Shoot

The Irish had a very young team this year and still had an over 500 season. They had only two seniors on the team, one of which was Kari Smith, who led the team in steals with an impressive 76 total. A younger star on the team was MVP Monica Cundiff, best offensive player and unanimous 1st team all conference. A high point in the season was the victory over Richwoods 45 to 39, a first for the Lady Irish. The team's final record was 14 and 13. Over all, the team hopes for great things in the future.

The 1986-87 Freshman-Sophomore Girls' Basketball team finished the season with a respectable 9-9 record. The Lady Irish were led in scoring and rebounding by sophomores Sharon Willi and Ellen Eason, who finished one-two in both categories.

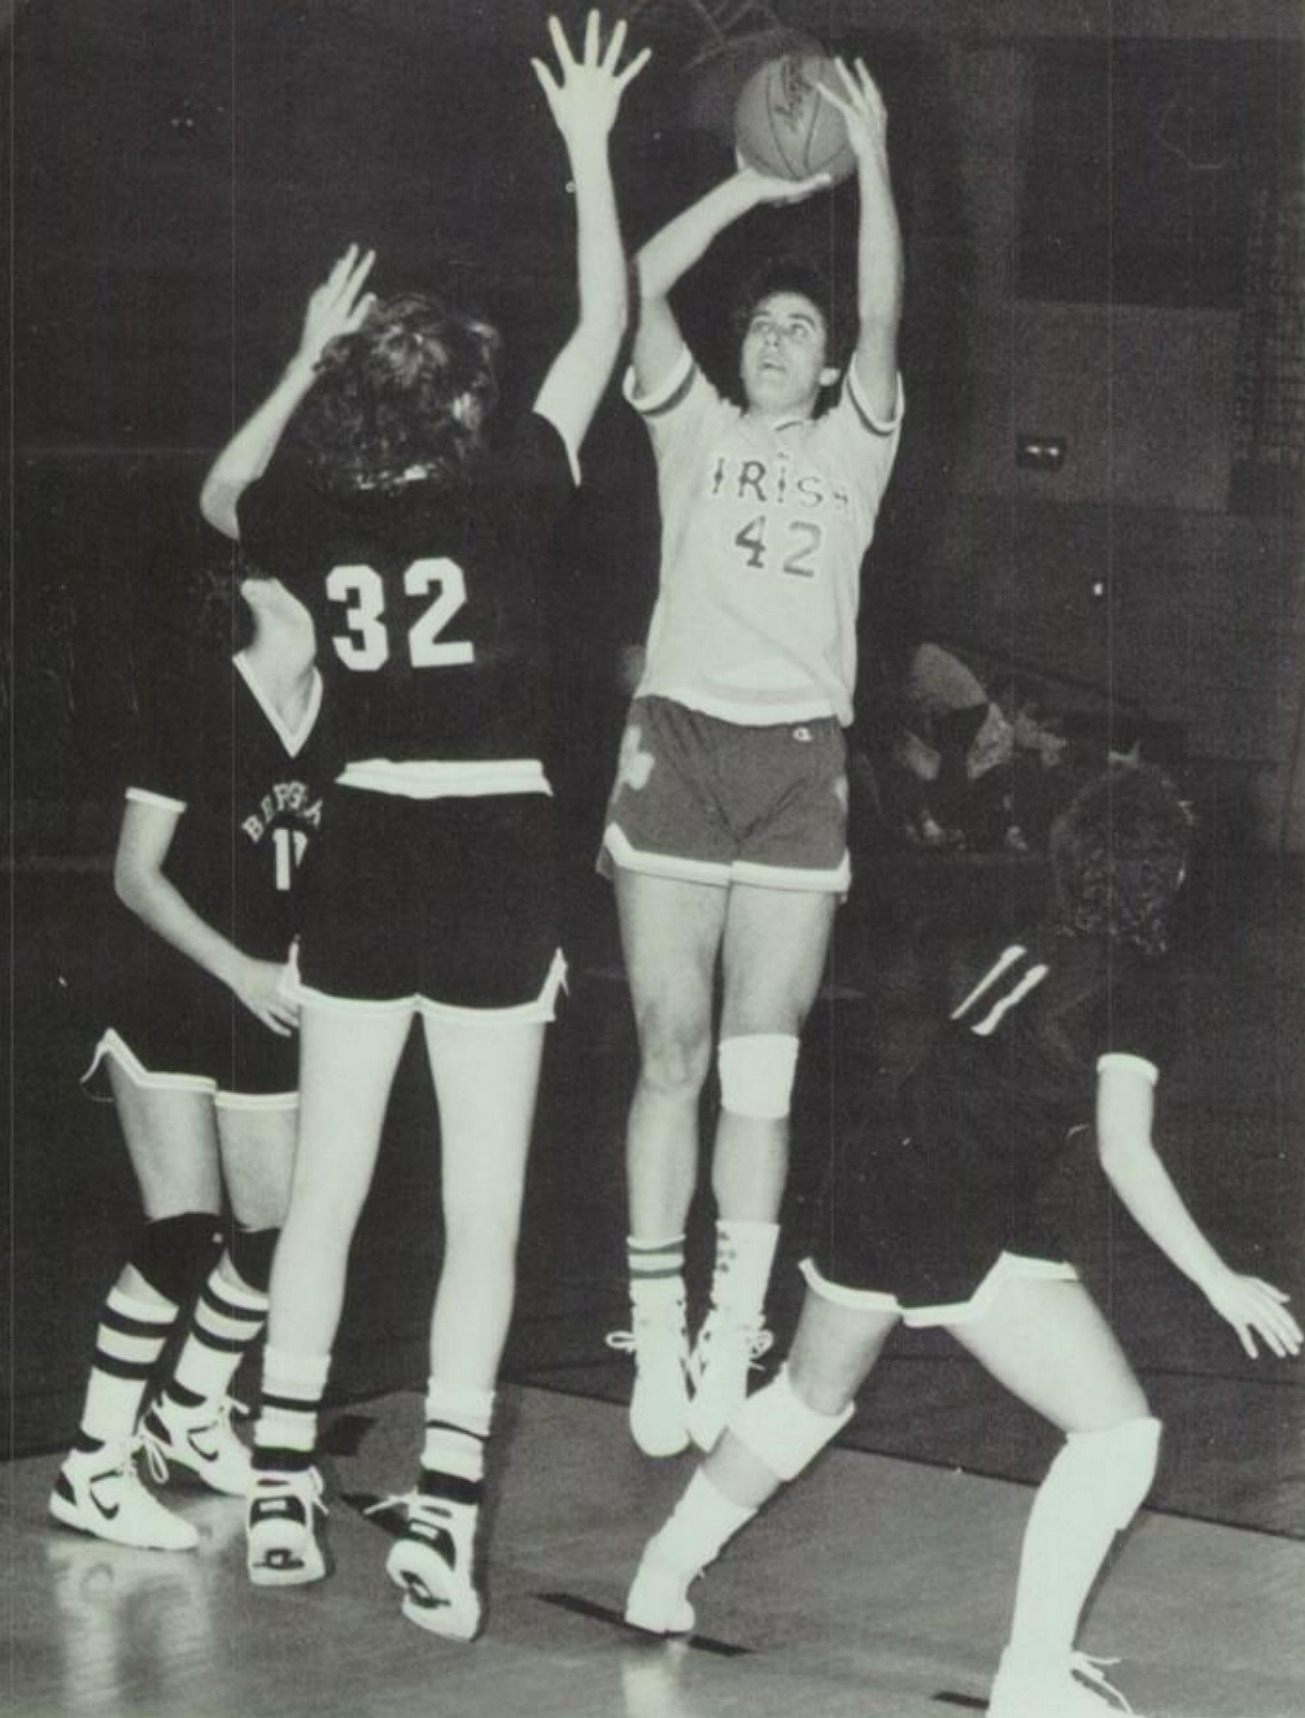

The team's victories include two wins over Bergan and a one point decision over Woodruff to secure a .500 finish for the year.

Takedown, Two Points

The 1986-87 Varsity Wrestling team, a mixture of hard work, prestige, and experience, had an overall impressive record of 19 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie. This team shall go down in the record books as one of the best in Spalding history, as they set three school records and tied another. These records were: team takedowns (465), team pins (163), and team match points (1,200). They tied the record of sending six sectional qualifiers set by the 1985 and 1986 teams. The six sectional qualifiers were seniors: George Driggs, Brad Pascual, Troy Campbell, Juniors: Andy Welsh and Chuck Anthony, and sophomore Tom Grow.

The team placed 2nd in the Mid-State Ten Tournament behind powerhouse, Pekin Dragons. They won the Eureka Invitational and the Delavan Invitational, and also placed second at the Illini Bluffs Invitational. With strong leadership from the six starting seniors, Brad Pascual, Matt Paluska, Mike Richardson, Jon Kendall, Troy Campbell, and George Driggs, the wrestling team posted a 5-0-1 record in the city which led the team to a 3rd straight City Championship.

Many firsts in the individual records were made. George Driggs and Brad Pascual became the first 3-time sectional qualifiers. The two also tied for the career win record with George collecting 34 wins and Brad collecting 30, making a total of 94 career wins in their years as varsity wrestlers. Troy Campbell broke the season pin record with 24 pins. Tom Grow broke the escape record with 44.

Individual honors voted on by the team were given to George Driggs (most valuable wrestler), Tom Grow (most improved), and Brad Pascual (most dedicated).

Wrestling coaches are Kevin Burk and Gordon Hitzeroth.

Junior, Chuck Anthony (Sectional qualifier with a 22-8-1 record) tries to score with a Single Leg to sweep takedown.

Senior, Troy Campbell (Sectional qualifier with a 30-7-1 record) uses strength and agility to keep his opponent under control.

"Is it that easy coach?" Senior Mike Richardson (22-12-2) uses the best move, as any coach would say, 'simply putting the opponent to his back.'

Senior, Brad Pascual (Sectional qualifier with a 30-9-1 record) adds another 2 points to his match score.

Strong #3 doubles team, Martin Lee and Brian Mannlein execute a tough point from the base line.

#2 doubles team, Brad Fulton and Tim Ritschel prepare for conference play.

Go, Reach

The 1987 track season was partly victorious in personal wins, but was pretty slow in meets. The best overall players were Fran DeLaCruz, Greg Heller, Dave Petit, Andy Noreuil, and the rest of the relay team. This year the middle distances stood out the most, followed by the 3200, and the 1 mile. Joe McEnroe, a freshman, ran varsity his first year, and accomplished very much.

Girls track team members get last minute tips from Coach Maloney.

The 1987 girls track team had a not so pleasing season. The two mile relay consisting of Ingrid Dowell, Karen Millar, Colleen Moore, and Mary Fortune, took 5th in Sectionals. The 400 relay consisting of Lisa Bolton, Angela Bolton, Krista Beckman, and Regina Clay, broke the school record at the Washington relays.

The depth of the track team helped to win more meets; so did the strong freshmen group. Due to the absence of a 'star' individual, the team worked well together as a unit with Coaches Cindy Clark and Jerry Maloney.

The Spalding softball team finished the year with a 23-7 season. Co-Champions in the Mid-State ten Conference, the Irish shared top honors with Central as both teams ended with 15-2 conference records.

Sophomore pitcher Jenny Kelly ended up with a 13-3 record, while freshman Amy Strong wound up 10-4. Strong defense and timely hitting by the team as a whole contributed to the very successful season.

With 12 of 14 members of the squad returning next year, the future looks bright for Irish softball.

Double Play

The 1987 Varsity boys baseball team had an overall record of 15-16 and a conference record of 9-8. The highlight of the season came when they beat every team in conference, except Springfield Lanphier. The low point of the year occurred when they lost close games to Woodruff, East Moline and Crestone.

Outstanding players for the Irish were Scott Schaumburg and Jim Kelly, who were leading hitters. Adam Abraham and Charlie Gavin were the leading pitchers.

Coach Schifeling said, "We had an up and down season where we could never get good hitting, pitching, and defense together for an extended period of time."

Student Senate Rules the School

This year's Student Senate's major accomplishments were re-writing the constitution, coordinating the annual basket drive, and organizing most of AOL/SI's dances. The dances included Back-to-School, Homecoming, Vice-Versa, Prom, and jams after games. They were also involved in the National Forum, Petition Drive to Educate on Nuclear Threat, and the Peoria Area Canathon. Moderator Tom Pilat says "we have a lot of fun, we work hard, and we do our best to live up to our role as leaders." Counselors, Servers, and Kids Aid the Community

Kids on the Block is an educational program designed to heighten the public's awareness about the characteristics of a variety of disabilities and situations, including blindness, physical abuse, and deafness.

The pontifical servers participate in mass by helping the bishop. Their main duty is to act as altar boys at masses held at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Peer counselors are new to the Spalding community. Their agenda includes counseling students that have trouble discussing problems with adults. They meet weekly with their trainer, Shellie Frost, from the Human Service Center.

SUMMA and MSJ Record Events

Putting together a publication, whether monthly or yearly, is hard work. There are pictures to be taken, layouts to be designed, and copy to be written. Much dedication and many hours are required. The staffs did not spend all their time working however; MSJ held an annual dinner at Cheddars, and SUMMA had many pizza parties. Editors for the year were seniors Tiffany Orr, MSJ editor, and Troy Hattermann, SUMMA editor. Newspaper advisor was Mrs. Terry Finan, and yearbook advisor was Mrs. Mary Osborne.

Hockey and Soccer Teams Show Their Stuff

Although the first year of girls' soccer was not too successful, it was very enjoyable. They played teams from Collinsville, Rockford, and Peoria rival, Bergan. Their coach, Bob Willi, was very dedicated and had faith in them the whole season. Practice started in the middle of March and continued every day until the end of May.

Both hockey teams, led by coach Mark Olsen, had very successful seasons. The junior varsity team won the league championship. Despite having center Alex Kilgo and goalie Brian Flaherty out with injuries for half of the season, the varsity team placed second in their division. They practiced late on weeknights, starting around 8:45 at Owens Center.

Irish Cheerleaders: Crowd Leaders

Cheerleaders spent the year cheering for soccer, football, and basketball. They also took part in the Santa Claus Parade. The varsity squad went to U.C.A. camp this summer and received the "Key to Spirit Award," along with the spirit stick.

The varsity squad came together quite well under the leadership of senior Meg Callaway and junior Alicia Zarley. The JV squad was led by sophomore Chris Ruscheinski. Mrs. Gayle Young moderated the two squads.

Hard at work, the varsity cheerleaders agree that leading their team isn't all fun and games.

Gina Morss proves that even the rain can't drown the enthusiasm of the Fighting Irish.

Krista Beckman cheers on the Irish at an all-school pep rally.

Junior Sherrie O'Brien performs to "When the Going Gets Tough." The routine won 2nd place at Universal Dance Camp's competition.

Irish pom-pon squad Ties for Top

Headed by Missy Warner and Michelle Pestl, the pom-pon squad did quite well this year. Over the summer they went to camp. They were awarded the spirit stick and tied for being the best squad. Because of this, they were invited to the National Competition. Besides camp, the squad practiced every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday after school for 1-1/2 hours to prepare for their performances at football and basketball games.

Junior Trisha Dugard and senior captain Melissa Warner dance at a pep-rally.

People is people: athletes, scholars, musicians, actors, freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors, teachers, administrators, cafeteria workers, counselors, and just ordinary people.

Mrs. Haley's sophomore homeroom says "cheese" while senior Rob Estoye takes their picture.

Irish fans watch the play-by-play action at a basketball game in the gym.

This statue of the Virgin Mary welcomes visitors to the AOL/SI Campus as she stands at the south end of the mall.

Ads. They bring us all kinds of information. They promote our businesses, keep us informed on the latest and hottest sales, urge us to help others, encourage us to purchase products and policies, entertain us with humor and the ridiculous. They are part of our community; our parents, our alumni, our friends. They can be almost any form: a flyer or leaflet, an insert in the Sunday paper, a spot on a radio, a hot-air balloon, a billboard, a piece of junk mail, or most commonly, a commercial. Without them we would miss out on many of life's opportunities.

A view of the AOL/SI campus as seen from downtown Peoria. This angle of the school is reproduced on many of Spalding's documents, including the stationary and diplomas.

A front view of the Spalding building as it now stands. The building was built in 1896, and it opened as a school for boys only, in 1898. The institute later merged in 1974 with the Academy of Our Lady, a boarding school for women.

After the Founder's Day Mass, seniors Joe George and Brian Couri lead the procession out of the gym. Joe and Brian were chosen to be servers because of their many relatives who attended and are attending Spalding.

Seniors Pat Kenny, Andy Noreuil, Matt Vignali, freshman Jason Ribando, and junior Ingrid Dowell ready themselves to answer questions at a scholastic meet. The scholastic team had a superb year earning many trophies. New this year was a buzzer system from Parents Club.

Senior Michele Staats shows a smile of relief after typing in the last line of her computer program. Students were required to write and type in a long program which used the many commands which they had learned during the whole year.

Senior Jim Kelly keeps his eye on the ball while batting during a game at the Booster field. The varsity baseball team came together under the leadership of coach Scott Schifeling.

A group of seniors pose outside the charter bus they rented, with Bishop Spalding who was taken for a ride on prom night. After the dance, the couples rode to Chicago for breakfast and a walk along Lake Michigan.

The bust of Bishop Spalding watches the student body as they leave the gym after Founder's Day Mass. Bishop Spalding founded the Spalding Institute for boys in 1898.
